Company Overview :

Typically, debt elimination isn't the golden ticket. In order for consumer to have long-term financial success, education is key. The Institute of Consumer Economic Education (ICEE) is focused on empowering consumers with financial knowledge, information, education and action. Through its website, curriculum, classes and orientations, and personalized, one-on-one mentoring, ICEE provides consumers with the tools to live smarter, richer lives. Based in Denver, CO, ICEE is a one-stop information... \(read more\)

Mission:

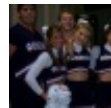

Most consumers view mortgages, credit card fees and auto loans as a necessary part of life. Visions of winning the lottery can sometimes seem like the only way out. At the Institute of Consumer Economic Education (ICEE) we take a very different view of personal financial management. Our philosophy is to empower every consumer with knowledge and from there educate and mentor. We provide a content-rich information source focused on educating consumers on a vast array of subjects surrounding consumer financial education. Through our website, proprietary curriculum, classes and orientations, and personalized, one-on-one mentoring, ICEE provides consumers with the tools to live smarter, richer lives. It's not a one-stop approach to debt elimination but rather a long-term process that empowers and educates.

Products:

ICEE takes a holistic, 360-degree view of personal finance. Consumers can access one of many resources to learn, inform or take action.

• At www.iceellc.com <<http://www.iceellc.com/>> consumers have a one-stop source for information and knowledge sharing.

Tidbits of financial education so as to empower every consumer with the knowledge to navigate today's economic terrain
